

---

The expression 'winning hands down' originates from horse racing. It refers to a jockey who wins a race without having to use the whip or pull the reins.

---

Olympic gold medals are actually composed of 92.5% silver! The 1912 Olympics was the last edition to hand over medals made of solid gold.